Read Galatians 6:1-10

2. Do you think disciples should hold each other accountable? What does it look like to 'restore someone gently'?
3. How can we balance truth and grace when confronting sin in someone's life? Can you think of an example when gentleness was shown to you? What difference did it make?
4. What are some examples of burdens that you have seen other people your age carrying?
5. How might we practically help carry one another's burdens?
6. What is it important to examine our own lives before helping others?

7. How does pride or comparing ourselves to others hinder true community in the body of Christ?
8. Have you ever felt weary in doing good? What helped you press on?

10. What are some simple ways we can 'do good' to others - especially within the church family?

Application

Prayer

Lord God, help me walk in love and humility. Teach me to gently restore others, to carry their burdens, and to sow seeds of the Spirit, not the flesh. Strengthen me when I grow weary, and remind me that in your time, good will bear fruit. Let me never miss a chance to do good and encourage others in the family of faith. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfil the law of Christ. Galatians 5:2
