THIS WEEK'S FOCUS

While others shared news about emperors or battles, the first Christians shared the best news: Jesus is alive, and he saves us! They travelled far and wide to tell everyone about the hope they had in him.

SERIES OVERVIEW

Strange Religion (Acts)

Whilst western Christianity can often look very similar to western culture, the very first followers of Jesus—along with their communities—were extraordinarily distinctive. Perhaps even a little weird! These new believers who were part of a new movement deviated from so many of the cultural norms and societal expectations. And in a culture in which everyone was 'religious', Christians still stood out as strange.

Yet whilst distinctive, these first Christians were also strangely compelling. As people witnessed their lives and heard their message, some were offended, others were confused, but many came to believe. In this eight-part series, we'll explore some of the earliest accounts of the church in Acts to see how the Gospel distinctively transformed these very first believers, also considering how the Gospel should continue to transform the lives of believers today.

TEACHING TIME

Proclaimed Good News

This is our final week learning about some of the weird and wonderful stories in Acts. Over the last few weeks we've heard about how the early Christians spread the good news about Jesus to people in countries all around them - from Jerusalem all the way to Rome.

These early Christians were filled with the power of the Holy Spirit and just couldn't wait to share the news that EVERYONE can have this free gift. They were so determined to spread this news that they were prepared to face many dangers. Paul, the apostles (and other witnesses) braved persecution, trials, imprisonment, death and even being shipwrecked! I wonder if we would be prepared to face all those dangers to tell people about Jesus. Would you be prepared to go to jail or be ridiculed by all your friends or even be killed - just to make sure that EVERYONE hears about Jesus?

Well, Paul and his apostles were. They were even prepared to use their own lives as an example.

In today's verses, Paul is speaking with the elders from Ephesus. Paul had spent a lot of time in Ephesus and the elders would have known him well. Paul knows that he won't be back in this part of the world again, so he wants to make sure that they have understood his message.

He is saying goodbye to them and asking them to reflect on what he has taught them. He's not trying to show off, but he is trying to show them what following Jesus looks like. Those first Christians knew that the most important thing they could do with their lives - no matter how dangerous, was to tell everyone about the gift of Jesus.

As Christians living in Toowoomba, we don't face life-threatening dangers if we share the good news, but it can sometimes feel a bit daunting. Thankfully we have the help of the Holy Spirit and role models like Paul to help us.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. Early Childhood

Who are some of the people that teach you about Jesus?

2. Lower Primary

Can you remember who first told you about Jesus?

3. Middle Primary

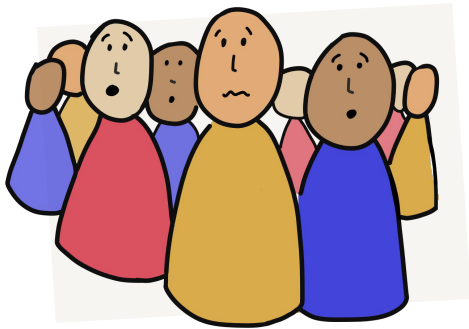

When did you first hear the good news about Jesus?

4. Upper Primary

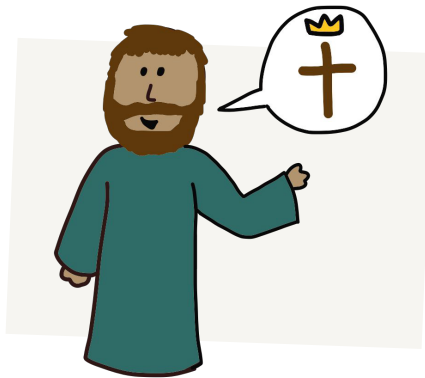

Who is someone you could share the good news of Jesus with this week?

Early Childhood

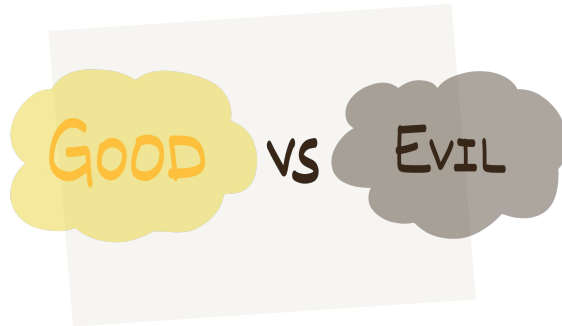

Proclaimed Good News

One day, Paul went to visit the leaders of the church in a place called Ephesus.

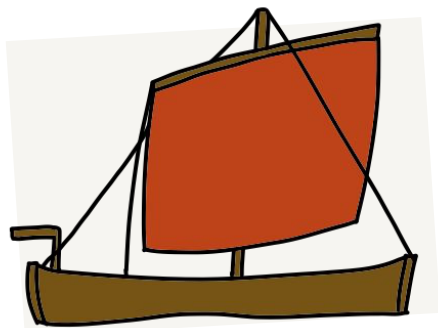

When he got there, he talked to the leaders of the church and told them about the things he had been doing to tell people about God.

He also warned them to be careful about people who might try to teach them the wrong things.

Early Childhood

Then, Paul said he had to go to Jerusalem, and he didn't know what would happen to him there.

Paul told his friends that he loved Jesus and was willing to do what God wanted, even if it was hard.

Before he left, Paul gave his friends a big hug and said a prayer with them.

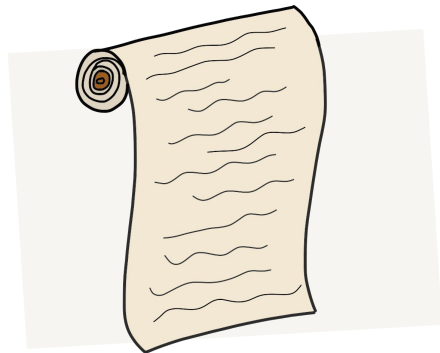

Early Childhood

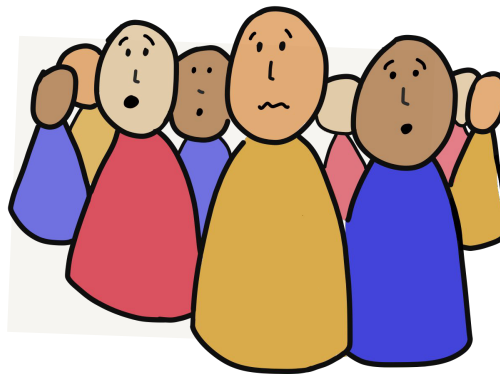

They were sad to see him go, but they knew that he was doing what God wanted him to do.

Lower Primary

Proclaimed Good News

17 From Miletus, Paul sent for the leaders of the church at Ephesus.

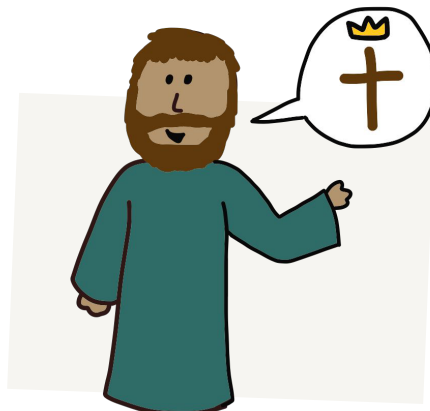

18 When they arrived, he said, “You know how I lived the whole time I was with you. From the first day I arrived.

Lower Primary

19 I served the Lord with tears and with humility. I served him when I was greatly tested.

20 Nothing has kept me from preaching whatever would help you.

Lower Primary

21 I have told everyone that they must have faith in our Lord Jesus.

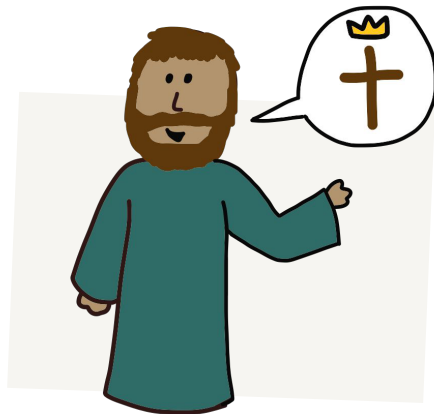

22-23 The Holy Spirit is urging me to Jerusalem. He warns me that suffering awaits me.

Lower Primary

24 But my life means nothing to me.
My only goal is to tell others about the good news of God's grace.

25-26 None of you I have preached to will ever see me again. So I am not guilty if any of you don't believe.

Lower Primary

27 No-one has stopped me from telling you everything God wants you to do.

28-31 Keep watch over yourselves. The Holy Spirit has made you leaders over them. Be shepherds of God's church.

GRACE

32-35 I commit you to God and to the message about his grace. Then you will share in what God plans to give all his people.

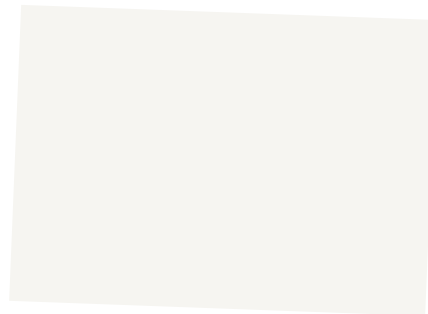

36 Paul finished speaking, and got down on his knees with all of them and prayed.

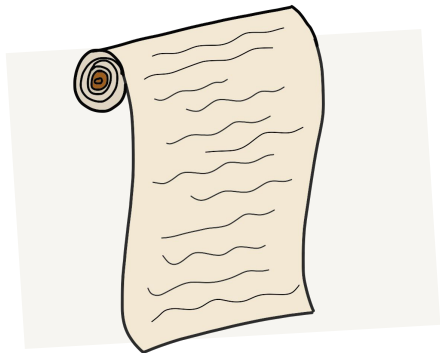

Lower Primary

37 They all wept as they hugged and kissed him.

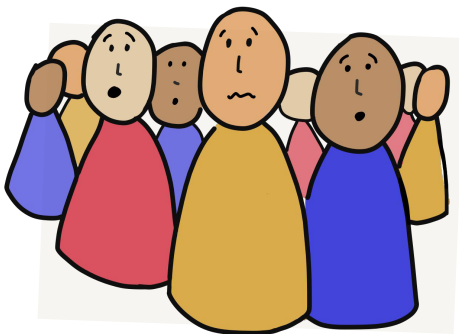

Middle Primary

17 From Miletus, Paul sent for the elders of the church at Ephesus.

Proclaimed Good News

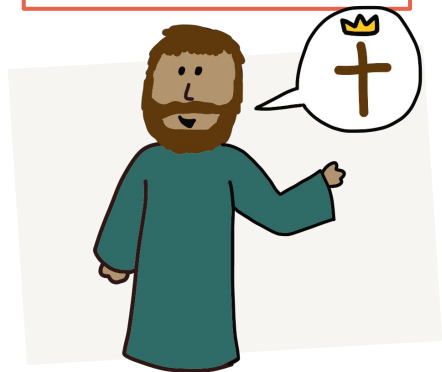

18 When they arrived, he spoke to them. “You know how I lived the whole time I was with you,” he said. “From the first day I came into Asia Minor,

19 I served the Lord with tears and with humility. I served him when I was greatly tested by the evil plans of the Jews who disagreed with me.

Middle Primary

20 You know that nothing has kept me from preaching whatever would be helpful, whether in public or from house to house.

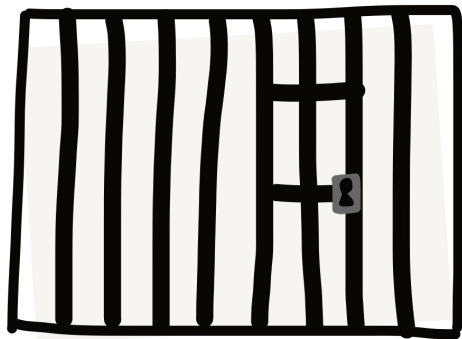

21 I have told both Jews and Greeks that they must repent, and have faith in our Lord Jesus.

22 “Now I am going to Jerusalem as compelled by the Holy Spirit. I don’t know what will happen to me there.

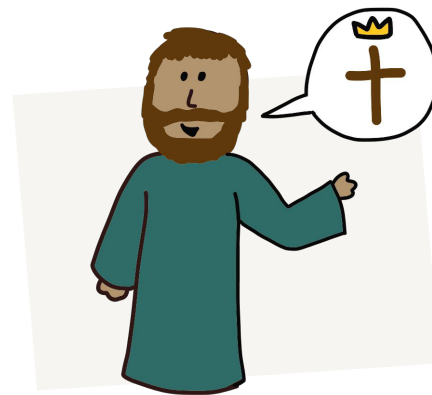

Middle Primary

23 I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me that I will face prison and suffering.

24 But my life means nothing to me. My only goal is to finish the race and complete the work the Lord Jesus has given me. He wants me to tell others about the good news of God's grace.

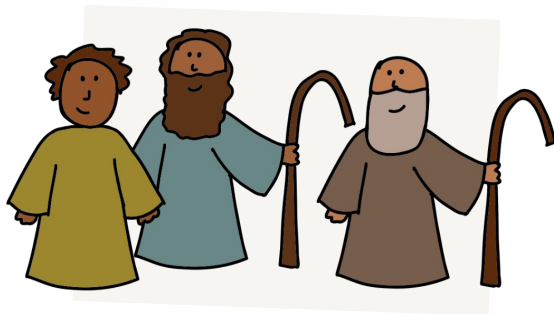

25 "I have spent time with you preaching about the kingdom. I know that none of you will ever see me again.

Middle Primary

26-27 So I am not guilty if any of you don't believe. No-one has stopped me from telling you everything God wants you to do.

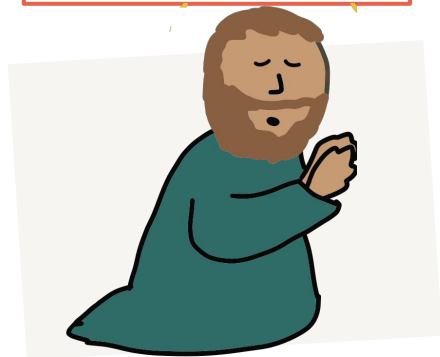

28-31 Keep watch over yourselves and over all the believers. The Holy Spirit has made you leaders over them. Be shepherds of God's church. He bought it with his own blood.

GRACE

32-35 "I commit you to God and to the message about his grace. It can build you up. Then you will share in God's inheritance.

Middle Primary

36 Paul finished speaking, and got down on his knees with all of them and prayed.

37 They all wept as they hugged and kissed him.

YOU'LL NEED...

- Puzzle of the World

THIS SUNDAY

14th September 2025

BIBLE FOCUS

Acts 20:17-37

THEME

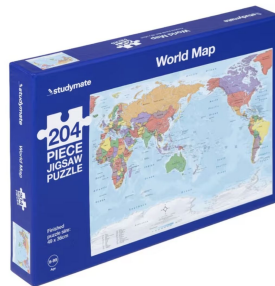

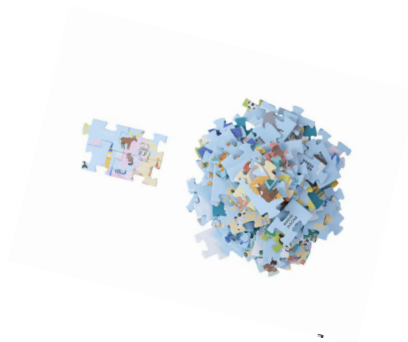

Proclaimed Good News

WEEK

STEPS

1. Have the children work together to complete the puzzle.
2. Ask the children: Do you remember the first time you heard about Jesus? Did you know there are people around the world who have never heard about Jesus? They need people like Peter who are willing to go and tell them about Jesus. We call these people missionaries. God wants everyone to hear the good news of Jesus.
3. Ask the children to find and point to locations on the map. Start with local places (e.g. Australia), and slowly go further afield.

Link

We can tell people about Jesus in our own town, or we can travel far away to share the Good News with others.

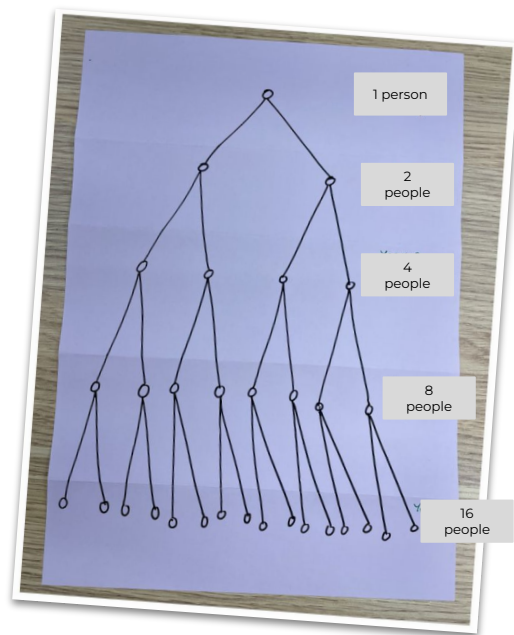

Spreading the Good News

YOU'LL NEED...

- Paper
- Clipboards
- Pencils

STEPS

1. Fold the piece of paper into 5 segments.
2. In the first segment draw one circle, this represents you.
3. In the second segment, you are showing what happens if you tell two people the good news. Draw two lines to two circles.
4. Continue this pattern, doubling every segment.
5. Count the final number of circles in the bottom segment. It should be amazing to see the power of simple multiplication! That is how the church has grown through history, one person telling another.
6. Repeat with more circles. What would happen if each person told four people about Jesus.

Link

Paul worked hard to tell people the Good News about Jesus. God wants us to know this Good News and help share it with others.

GAME: Dominoes

YOU'LL NEED...

- Dominoes (or jenga blocks or similar)

STEPS

1. Set up a dominoes trail.
2. Talk to the children about how it only takes one person to tell one other person about Jesus and it has the potential to impact many many others.
3. Demonstrate this by tapping down the first domino and watching all the others 'hear about Jesus'.
4. Repeat, but try and design the trail with multiple points coming out from the start (signifying many different tribes/groups of people). Watch the effect travel.

Link

Paul worked hard to tell people the Good News about Jesus. God wants us to know this Good News and help share it with others.

GAME: Captain's Coming

YOU'LL NEED...

- N/A

STEPS

1. One leader to be captain of the ship. The captain is in charge of the ship and yelling out orders to the crew.
2. Crew members must obey all of the captain's orders.
3. Play continues with the captain calling and the crew responding. The faster the actions are called and performed, the trickier the game becomes.

Captain's orders:

Scrub the decks: crew members get on their hands and knees and pretend to scrub the deck.

Man overboard: crew members find a partner, hold hands and pretend to row a boat.

Climb the rigging: crew members pretend to climb a ladder.

Captain's coming: crew members salute and say "aye captain".

Hit the deck: crew members lay face down on the floor.

Four corners: there are four corners of the ship: back, front, left and right. When the captain yells out a corner all crew members must run to it.

Link

Paul left for Jerusalem on a ship. He was compelled by the Holy Spirit to continue his ministry.
