Future

Discussion Questions

Main Point: One day, God will make everything new - with no more pain, sadness, or death. Jesus' resurrection gives us a hope for the future, where all things will be renewed when he returns.

Warm-up questions

1. What do you think heaven will be like?

Read Revelation 21:1-5

2. How does John's vision describe God's new creation?

3. How is this New Creation similar to life today?

4. How is it different to life today?

5. What do you think will be the most exciting thing about New Creation?

6. What do you think is meant in verse 3 when it says: "Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them."?

7. What hope does verse 5 give us?

8. How can we live today in anticipation of a future where sorrow, pain, and death are no more?
9. How could you explain Christians' certain hope to someone who doesn't yet know Jesus?

Application

10. How can you be reminded (and remind others) to trust in God's promises and wait patiently for his coming kingdom and glory?

Prayer

Dear God, Thank you that you promise to make everything new. Thank you that because of Jesus we can look forward to living with you forever in a world with no pain, no sadness, and no death. Please help us to remember this when life feels hard, and to live now as people who love and follow you. Amen.

Then I saw "a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband." Revelation 21:1-2
