Theme Focus

A Call to Holy Living

Discussion Questions

Main Point: God wants His people to do what is right. Following God means loving Him and loving others every day.

Warm-up questions

1. Should people be able to tell you are a Christian by the way you live your life?

Read Leviticus 19:1-18

2. What are the 10 Commandments? Can you explain how they are split into two different categories? (Hint: What do the first 4 commandments focus on; and the next 6?

Read Deuteronomy 5:1-21)

3. Leviticus 19:2 summarises God's laws into two words. What are they?

4. What was the ultimate purpose of these commands?

5. Because God cared about the whole life of his people, the laws outlines in Leviticus deal with every aspect of living: including farming, marriage, clothing, animals, worship, and servant. Find some examples of this from verses 1-18.

6. The Law was not merely a list of special (or impossible) rules for a particular group of people, but rather the Law was a gift from God to the whole community about an agreed way of holy living. How does the Law demonstrate God's love for his people?

7. Which of these laws sound familiar or still bear influence in the world today?
Which laws seem strange?

8. Do we find the Ten Commandments in the New Testament? What does Jesus say about God's commandments?

Application

9. How can we continue to live our lives distinctively from the others around us?

10. Who helps us live holy lives?

Prayer

Lord, please forgive our sins and failures and help us to live holy lives in accordance with you. May we respond wholeheartedly to the Good News that Jesus is Lord - the one who fulfils the Law, sets us apart, and sacrifices us by his Spirit. Amen.

The Lord spoke to Moses. He said, "Speak to the whole community of Israel. Tell them, 'Be holy, because I am holy. I am the Lord your God. Leviticus 19:1-2
