SERIES OVERVIEW

Genesis (Part 3)

Genesis is not only the beginning of the Bible, but provides a foundation for our understanding of who God is, God's plan for the world, and our part in his story. We have approached Genesis in three parts; Part I unpacking the beginning of grace in the origins of creation, humanity, and sin (Genesis 1-11), and Part II God's response in calling Abraham and his unfolding story (Genesis 12-25).

In this eight-part series, we'll explore the characteristics of God as he works through his chosen people—especially Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph.

ADDITIONAL INFO

This resource is the fifth in an eight week series on Genesis (Part 3).

FOCUS

Joseph is far from home as a servant in Egypt. Things go wrong unfairly - but one thing stays true the whole time: God is with Joseph.

WARM-UPS

- How has your week been - thumbs up, down, in-between?
- What are some of the choices that you have made this week?

TEACHING TIME

The Present God

When Joseph was his father's favourite son, he probably had the privilege of making a lot of choices to please himself.

But when he arrived in Egypt, he was sold as to be a servant. He had no choice about that. He wouldn't have had a choice about the hours he worked or the jobs that he did.

But God was with Joseph. So despite his bad and sad days far away from his father, in a strange land and in a humble position - he began to do very well.

Even Potiphar, his owner, who was a very important government official, could see that Joseph's God was making him very successful. Potiphar began to trust Joseph with more and more responsibilities. After some time, Potiphar hardly had to anything because Joseph was doing such a great job!

Finally, things were going well for Joseph. Until one day, Potiphar's wife told a lie about Joseph. She claimed that Joseph had attacked here - and that was the opposite of the truth. He had been trying to avoid her altogether.

But Potiphar believed his wife. And he was so angry at Joseph, that he had him locked up in prison. Imagine going from a role where he was very highly regarded - to jail.

Does that mean that God had forgotten Joseph? No God knew exactly where he was, why he as there - and God remained with Joseph.

So much so, that the man running the prison was so impressed with Joseph, that he he gave Joseph so much responsibility, that after a while, it was Joseph who was running the prisons.

Sometimes we might think that everything is going wrong. But God is with us. He is watching over us - every day and whatever our circumstances are.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. Early Childhood

Why is it so good to know that God is always with you?

2. Lower Primary

Why is it so good to know that God is always with you?

3. Middle Primary

How does knowing that that God is with you, give you confidence no matter what kind of day you're having?

4. Upper Primary

How does knowing that that God is with you, give you confidence no matter what kind of day you're having?

Early Childhood

The Present God

Joseph was taken to Egypt and became a servant in the house of a man named Potiphar, who worked for Pharaoh, the king of Egypt.

God was with Joseph and helped him do his work well.

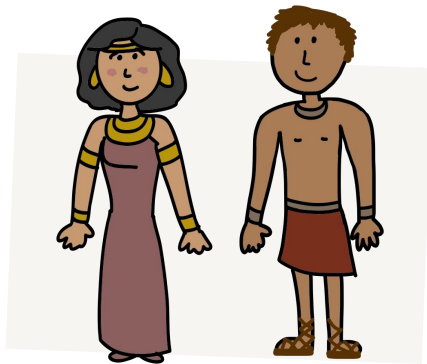

Potiphar noticed that Joseph could be trusted, so he put him in charge of his whole household.

Early Childhood

Blessed

God blessed Potiphar and his family because Joseph worked for him.

Joseph was a handsome young man. After some time, Potiphar's wife wanted Joseph to do something wrong.

But Joseph said, "No! Potiphar trusts me, and I will not do something that is wrong. It would also be a sin against God."

Early Childhood

OBEY
GOD

Potiphar's wife kept asking Joseph, but he continued to say no. He wanted to do what was right and obey God.

One day, when Joseph was working in the house and nobody else was there, Potiphar's wife grabbed his coat.

Joseph ran away as quickly as he could, leaving his coat behind.

Early Childhood

Potiphar's wife was angry.
She told her servants a story that was not true.

When Potiphar came home, she told him the same story.

Potiphar became very angry and sent Joseph to prison.

Early Childhood

Even though Joseph was in prison, God did not leave him. God was with Joseph and showed him kindness.

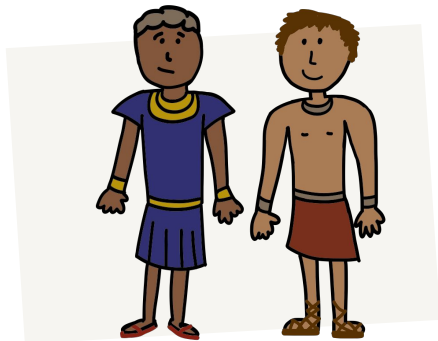

The man in charge of the prison saw that Joseph could be trusted, so he put Joseph in charge of the other prisoners.

Blessed

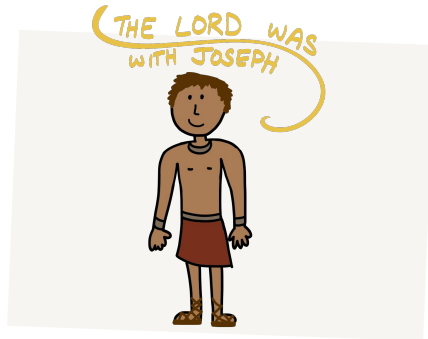

God continued to help Joseph, and Joseph did well in everything he was given to do.

Lower Primary

The Present God

Ch39 Vs 1-2 After Joseph had been taken down to Egypt, he got a job with Potiphar who was a high official in Pharaoh's palace. The Lord was with Joseph so he excelled in everything he did.

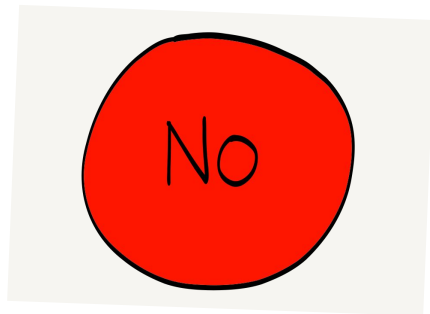

3-6 Potiphar saw that the Lord was with him so he trusted him and put him in charge of his whole household. Then the Lord blessed Potiphar's family.

Lower Primary

6-7 Joseph was very handsome. After a while, Potiphar's wife noticed him and said, "I want you to be my boyfriend!"

8-10 But he refused again and again, and said, "Potiphar trusts me with everything. He hasn't held anything back from me, except you, since you are his wife. So how could I do an evil thing like that? How could I sin against God?" She kept asking, but he didn't even want to be near her.

Lower Primary

11-12 One day Joseph went into the house to do his work. Nobody else was there except Potiphar's wife. She grabbed him by his coat but he ran out of the house.

213-15 When she saw that he had left his coat in her hand she called her servants. "Look," she said to them, "Joseph came in here to take advantage of me, but I screamed for help. So he ran for his life."

Lower Primary

16-21 When Potiphar came home she told him the story she'd made up. When he heard it, he became very angry. So he put Joseph in prison. While Joseph was in the prison, the Lord was with him and was kind to him.

Blessed

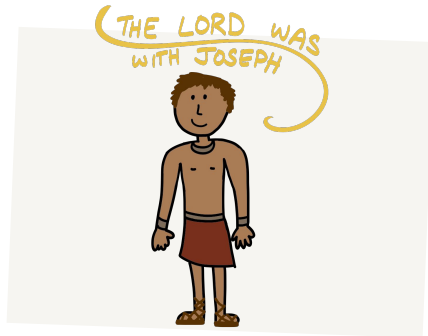

17-21 The man running the prison was pleased with him, and trusted him. He put Joseph in charge of all the prisoners because he knew the Lord was with Joseph. God gave Joseph success in everything he did.

Missionary Visit

YOU'LL NEED...

- Questions for the Missionary Visitor (optional)

STEPS

1. This week we will be having one of our Mission Partners from CMS visit our services.
2. 'Elle' is currently working as a collaborative worker with KGK (Kirisutosha Gakusei Kai) which is a student-led university campus-based ministry. KGK supports and trains young Christians at university as well as reaches out to non-Christian students on campus through bible study clubs, prayer meetings and bible camps.
3. We will be inviting the children to ask questions of Elle about her experience, the challenges, and blessings she has encountered whilst serving overseas in this country.

GAME: Flag or Flee

YOU'LL NEED...

- Football Flag belts

STEPS

1. Split teams into two: team A is Potiphar's wife (chasing) and Team B is Joseph (running away).
2. All the Joseph players are to wear celts. Each belt has two flags attached to their hips.
3. The aim of the game is for the Joseph (TEam A) to run away from Team B (Potiphar's Wife), without having any of their tags ripped off.
4. If a player has two flags pulled off, they are out of play.
5. Switch roles so that Team B have a chance to run and Team A a chance to chase.

Images an example only. Taken from Temu.
