Discussion Questions

Main Point: God used Joseph to fulfil his good purposes, save a nation, and rescue his family. We have a good God and we can trust him with the big picture, just like Joseph.

Warm-up questions

1. Has something you that you expected wasn't going to be good turn out better than expected?

Read Genesis 49:29-50:26

2. Where did Jacob want to be buried? Why?

3. Why did they return to Egypt afterwards?

4. How did Joseph's brothers feel after their father had died? Were these feelings justified?

5. How did the brothers try and solve this issue? How does Joseph respond?

6. How does Joseph's response to his brothers reflect the biblical teaching of forgiveness?

7. How has Joseph changed over the journey of Chapters 26-50?

8. List all the ways that Joseph's story anticipates the cross and points to Jesus.

Application

9. How has the Genesis: Joseph series helped you grow in your understanding of:
   a) who God is
   b) God's big plans for salvation
   c) how you might trust in God's promises and plans for your own life.

Prayer

Lord Jesus, Thank you that you overcome sin and evil for our good. Help us to depend on Jesus Christ and his suffering for us, for our salvation. Amen.

"You planned to harm me, but God planned it for good, the saving of many lives." Genesis 50:20
