Discussion Questions

Main Point: The world isn't how God made it to be, but He promises to make everything right through Jesus. While we wait, we can trust Him to bring us home to His perfect garden.

Warm-up questions

1. Can you describe a time in your life when you have had to wait?

Read Genesis 3:1-12

2. What do you think made the garden such a wonderful place to live?

3. What changed when Adam and Eve disobeyed God?

4. Why do you think Adam and Eve hid from God? What does that tell us about how sin affects our relationship with him?

5. Why do you think God came looking for Adam and Eve, even though he knew what they had done?

6. Satan tricked Eve into doubting God's word. Satan still does this to believers today. Have you ever experienced this? What should our response be?

7. In Genesis 3:15, God makes a promise that the serpent will eventually be defeated. Why is this an important moment?

8. Revelation 22:1–5 describes a world where there is no more death, mourning, crying or pain. What part of that promise do you look forward to most?

Application

9. What might it look like to trust God when we're waiting for Him to make something right, especially when we can't see the outcome?

10. What is one thing in this world that you long to see made right, and how does Jesus give you hope as you wait?

Prayer

Heavenly Father, Thank you for making such a beautiful world. We are sorry that sin has broken our relationship with you and brought so much hurt, sadness and brokenness into the world. As we wait for Jesus to return, help us not to lose heart. Help us to bring our sadness, questions and struggles to you, knowing that you understand and care. Amen.

Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the LORD God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the LORD God among the trees of the garden. Genesis 3:8
